Katy Rose Pool

Garden of the Cursed Katy Rose Pool, 2023-06-20 In this enemies-to-lovers romantasy mystery, cursebreaker Marlow Briggs reluctantly pretends to be in love with a powerful noble to gain entry into an illustrious—and deadly—society that holds clues to her mother's disappearance. “Nothing short of genius.” —Jennifer Lynn Barnes, #1 New York Times-bestselling author of The Inheritance Games series Since fleeing the gilded halls of Evergarden for the muck-filled canals of the Marshes, Marlow Briggs has made a name for herself as the best cursebreaker in Caraza City. But no matter how many cases she solves, she is still haunted by the mystery of her mother’s disappearance. When Adrius Falcrest, Marlow's old friend and scion of one of Caraza's most affluent spell-making families, asks her to help break a life-threatening curse, Marlow wants nothing to do with the boy who spurned her a year ago. But a new lead in her mother’s case makes Marlow realize that the only way to get the answers she desperately seeks is to help Adrius and return to Evergarden society—even if it means suffering through a fake love affair with him to avoid drawing suspicion from the conniving Five Families. As the investigation draws Marlow into a web of deadly secrets and powerful enemies, a shocking truth emerges: Adrius’s curse and her mother’s disappearance may just be clues to an even larger mystery, one that could unravel the very foundations of Caraza and magic itself. This edge-of-your-seat novel is perfect for fans of Veronica Mars, These Violent Delights, and Chain of Iron. A delicious read full of swoony romance. —Tricia Levenseller, New York Times-bestselling author of Blade of Secrets

Envisioning Howard Finster Norman J. Girardot,2015-06-26 The Reverend Howard Finster (1916-2001) was called the backwoods William Blake and the Andy Warhol of the South, and he is considered the godfather of contemporary American folk and visionary art. This book is the first interpretive analysis of the intertwined artistic and religious significance of Finster's work within the context of the American outsider art tradition. Finster began preaching as a teenager in the South in the 1930s. But it was not until he received a revelation from God at the age of sixty that he began to make sacred art. A modern-day Noah who saw his art as a religious crusade to save the world before it was too late, Finster worked around the clock, often subsisting on a diet of peanut butter and instant coffee. He spent the last years of his life feverishly creating his environmental artwork called Paradise Garden and what would ultimately number almost fifty thousand works of bad and nasty art. This was visionary work that obsessively combined images and text and featured apocalyptic biblical imagery, flying saucers from outer space, and popular cultural icons such as Elvis Presley, Marilyn Monroe, Henry Ford, Mona Lisa, and George Washington. In the 1980s and 90s, he developed cult celebrity status, and he appeared in the Venice Biennale and on the Tonight Show. His work graced the album covers of bands such as R.E.M. and Talking Heads. This book explores the life and religious-artistic significance of Finster and his work from the personal perspective of religion scholar Norman Girardot, friend to Finster and his family during the later years of the artist's life.

Exile and the Jews Nancy E. Berg, Marc Saperstein, 2024-04-08 This first comprehensive anthology examining Jewish responses to exile from the biblical period to our modern day gathers texts from all genres of Jewish literary creativity to explore how the realities and interpretations of exile have shaped Judaism, Jewish politics, and individual Jewish identity for millennia. Ordered along multiple arcs--from universal to particular, collective to individual, and mythic-symbolic to prosaic everyday living--the chapters present different facets of exile: as human condition, in history and life, in holiday rituals, in language, as penance and atonement, as internalized experience, in relation to the Divine Presence, and more. By illuminating the multidimensional nature of exile--political, philosophical, religious, psychological, and mythological--widely divergent evaluations of Jewish life in the Diaspora emerge. The word exile and its Hebrew equivalent, galut, evoke darkness, bleakness--and yet the condition offers spiritual renewal and engenders great expressions of Jewish cultural creativity: the Babylonian Talmud, medieval Jewish philosophy, golden age poetry, and modern Jewish literature. Exile and the Jews will engage students, academics, and general readers in contemplating immigration, displacement, evolving identity, and more.

God, Adam, and You Michael M. Christensen, 2015-11-17 Barna research suggests just over half of Americans who profess to be transformed by Christ believe God expects them to be holy and only a third consider themselves to be holy. This is disconcerting. Many of these same believers hold that Adam's sin and overwhelming fleshly desires are at the root of their personal sins. The purpose of this book is to re-examine Adam's legacy, the flesh, what sin really is, and God's holiness expectations of us. Do Adam's sin and fleshly desires force every person on this earth to sin in his likeness? Is sinning daily in thought, word, and deed our highest expectation? Can we love God in such a way that we can consistently obey his commands? We will discover that the impediments to a holy life may be fewer than we think and that what God commands of us we really can do!

Cultures of Natural History Nicholas Jardine,J. A. Secord,E. C. Spary,1996-01-26 This copiously illustrated volume is the first systematic general work to do justice to the fruits of recent scholarship in the history of natural history. Public interest in this lively field has been stimulated by environmental concerns and through links with the histories of art, collecting and gardening. The centrality of the development of natural history for other branches of history - medical, colonial, gender, economic, ecological - is increasingly recognized. Twenty-four specially commissioned essays cover the period from the sixteenth century, when the first institutions of natural history were created, to its late nineteenth-century transformation by practitioners of the new biological sciences. An introduction discusses novel approaches that have made this a major focus for research in cultural history. The essays, which include suggestions for further reading, offer a coherent and accessible overview of a fascinating subject. An epilogue highlights the relevance of this wide-ranging survey for current debates on museum practice, the display of ecological diversity and concerns about the environment.

An Approach to Afro Therapy Maka Dudi Ouma,1985

The Secrets of Revelation Sekhar Reddy Vasa,2017-01-31 Dear readers! God had created Adam and had installed him as the guardian of the Garden of Eden, and from his side bone, he had created the woman. Though Adam was not aware of the fruit of a tree that was pertinent to the destruction of humans, which was existed in the garden itself, God himself had informed Adam that the destruction of man would take place for sure through the eating of that fruit. But Adam and Eve, both were subjected to the preaching of the serpent, they had consumed that forbidden fruit and had received death and the punishment from the God. Later, during the period of Noah, God had chosen Noah and his family and had made them build the ark for one hundred and twenty years. During that period, through Noah, God had revealed about the disastrous floods and the destruction of the world through that flood well in advance. But there was not any repentance in the humans. The result was the great disastrous floods. Later, during the period of Moses, as God had intended to get the Israelis from the slavery, he had chosen their leader. Through Moses he had intimated about the destruction that was going to take place in Egypt to the Pharaoh, the ruler, and his province. But the result was just the destruction. Even though, God had revealed them in advance about the destruction. In this way, God had been warning people about the upcoming destruction through the prophets well in advance. The reason is his ambitioning that they would repent for their sins and would come into his protection. The citizens of Nineveh are those who had given up their mistakes and had repentance. These, through the preaching of Jonah, had realized their mistakes; they repented for their sins and had received the protection of God. In this way God himself had revealed about the deeds of destruction that he was about to perform through the preaching of the people that he had chosen, and if they do not repent for their sins, he had been destroying them. Similarly, Lord Christ has foretold about the incidents that are going to happen at the end of world to his beloved disciple John. This would have been taken place two thousand years ago. Those who had learnt all the incidents that would take place by the period of Doomsday from the period of Jesus Christ and had acquired repentance had been protected since then. But those had not repented had not been sentenced yet. But the treatise of Revelation is full of mysteries, secrets, and arcana. The multitudes opine that this treatise is a tough nut to crack for the ordinary people. God warns that the destruction is inevitable. It is the ambition of God that each and every one must know the secrets of his coming, because God is not the one who performs the deeds secretly. He would reveal it well in advance through his prophets, he would give them some time, and if they do not acquire repentance, he would destroy them. As a part of that, he had chosen us, he had bestowed us the divine wisdom and instigated us to write in a simple way that each and every one would easily understand the secrets of revelation that explains the reason and the ways the world is going to end, and through this book he is giving a warning to the citizen of the entire world. So I plead you as the messenger of the Father, Son, and Holy Sprit to repent and live a life that is worthy of God. Otherwise, the end of world is inevitable, inevitable, inevitable. Let the Grace of the Lord be with his servants. Amen.
