It is Time Errol Berk, 2022-08-01 This unique Book helps families deal with the tragic loss of a family member. As we are all vulnerable, tragedy can unexpectedly strike any family at any time. Whenever we love someone, we necessarily open ourselves up to the possibility of a broken heart in the event of loss. The contents of this book have important and widespread application. We all seek advisors and experts in many fields, but singularly overlooked is the availability of help with the devastating loss of a loved one, which has been considered to be perhaps the most stressful event in life. We all become wounded in life, but what matters is how we deal with it. Such losses involve immeasurable personal and family suffering, but such suffering can be helped. There are things that can be done, and the objectives include being able to move forward with a healthy and productive life. This Book provides unique and helpful approaches to dealing with the loss of a loved one, offering both a breath of appreciation and a depth of understanding. Such losses are particularly prevalent now, since an older segment of the population in America has been increasing, especially with baby boomers aging, and also with pandemic consequences. Currently, more and more people are facing the tragedies of family loss. These concerns in today's world are necessarily pertinent and are addressed in this Book. As a description of content, this Book includes clarifying the components concerning the nature of the loss, reaching perspectives, suggested prescriptions, the healing processes, assessing yourself, and charting your recovery. Therefore, the title is It Is Time: Prepare Now for the Loss of a Loved One. The author studied at several Universities, including Stanford University, the University of Southern California, as well as having studied abroad. The author has a Degree in Philosophy, and practiced Law for over forty years in litigation before retirement. The author has lost loved ones and has examined the processes of bereavement considerably. This Book's presentation makes it both readily helpful and manifestly readable, in the hopes of resolving the multiple conflicts that inevitably arise in the enduring tragedies of family loss.

The Irresistible Community Bill Donahue, 2015-07-28 We all want a place where our stories matter, our voices are heard, our uniqueness is celebrated, our failures are embraced, and our hopes are unleashed. That kind of deep, life-changing community was modeled perfectly by Jesus and the ragged bunch of disciples with whom he chose to spend his time. But how can we create it in our lives? Using the relationship of Jesus to his disciples in the upper room, Bill Donahue presents a simple but compelling approach to community life that was modeled by Jesus and offered to us all today. Using a table, a towel, and the truth, Jesus created an irresistible community where everyone finds a place to belong, live fully in the truth, and serve others with joy. Foreword by Dr. Henry Cloud.

Building a Bridge One Prayer at a Time Tini Siders, 2015-09-19 Building a Bridge, One Prayer at a Time is an extension of a Bible study group that started on a bridge outside author Tini Siders office. She and her coworkers began bridging the gap for others through prayer, forming the Bridge Prayer Group. This spiritual guide shares weekly devotions that will enhance your relationship with Christ as a result of spending time with Him each week, helping you to become a bridge builder, as well. Because these devotions are the result of the author's stream of consciousness as she ponders what God has shown her during the week, they may appear to be somewhat random in nature. Presented in a casual, relaxed format, they can be read as if you are having a conversation with a friend; make yourself comfortable in sharing your thoughts with God through prayer. You can also write your thoughts and prayers as you meditate on His Word, and, most importantly, try to put into action the things the Holy Spirit brings to your mind as you study. Build bridges and allow God to change your life; you will never regret it.

Bob Frost - A Trail Of Pennies Stephen J. Napolitano, 2010-04-22 This collection of thoughts and ideas came from an outcry of pain and suffering. Many people are in need to be listened to and call for action. I just wanted to freestyle with writing and help those believe in themselves. The more I wrote, the larger the readership grew. I received correspondence from all over on how a certain story helped them in some way. Sometimes I was asked to write something to inspire an event that was coming up and it ended up inspiring the masses. My intention was simple just to write what I felt on certain things and remind people how important and special they are. There are many people that feel lost and need guidance and I assumed a role to simply guide those lost souls. Most people I have encountered never were lost. They were just sidetracked off their path or journey. The snowball effect happened as I wrote more and these are a collection of my most favorite stories. These aren't mine; they belong to you, the reader. They have helped so many and I hope they help a new group of people by getting the word out. Bob Frost was created a while ago for my love of Robert Frost. I first heard "Nothing Gold Can Stay" from "The Outsiders" and fell in love with the poem. I've been studying his many quotes and poems, and made me look up to him as a writer, mentor and even friend. I took his name in celebration of his work and wishful thinking. I joined an anonymous website to express some personal issues in my life and quickly found others just like me. People had gotten to know me as "Bob" and I stuck with it. My real name, real life, make no difference and I preferred to remain an unknown person writing to many people about what they wanted to talk about. Some chose to write about happy things and some wanted to vent and get some answers. To me, it's the never ending quest for wisdom and knowledge. I possess none or pretend that I do. These stories are just my opinions, not facts. I don't have a degree in anything other than "life". I'm a middle class male in America trying to find my own way in life, my path. I don't boast a PhD in anything other than hard knocks. I love to write and I enjoy helping others effortlessly. If I don't have an answer for you, I'll find out one and help you any way I can. I'm here to live my life and walk my path. What I didn't realize is that while I live my life I encounter others on my path. Some are looking for guidance; some are looking for a helping hand. Some people just ignore and keep on walking. I refuse to believe in that way of thinking. As much as I argue with others about what I do, I feel the personal need to listen to every voice that write or talks to me. It makes for a difficult life for me, but the rewards mean more to me than anything. You have to sacrifice so much to be happy. You have to sometimes put everything and everyone aside and believe me, I did at first. I lost a lot but later found out it was the others that lost me. It took a long, vigorous process for me to accept the fact that not everyone is going to accept me. I've tried my whole life to be accepted and I still feel as if I'm not totally a part of society. So I write on and hopefully help others feel comfortable and at ease. I have always been an empath and that alone is a pain that I wouldn't wish on anyone. Believe me, it's mostly my own fault for being so naïve, but like I stated before, the rewards are limitless. So many people have thanked me and told me stories of success. The last couple of years I've told that I should publish my writing and try to get this message out to as many people as I can. After much thought, I decided to go for it. This book represents who and what "Bob Frost" is. I hope I don't come off as pompous, but I finally separated myself from my alter ego. I am an individual and that's why I have come out and did this. I don't use politics or religion in my writing. I feel the human soul is enough of a religious and political struggle within you. I don't use it a

It's been one year since Hazeem's father passed away unexpectedly, and one year since Hazeem got his special ability: He can grant any living thing extra time. Since then, he's been randomly granting people more years to live: his old friend Holly, his study buddy Yamany, his crush Jack. . . . The only problem is, none of them wanted to spend any of that time with Hazeem. Now, Hazeem spends most of his days with his grandmother. When she experiences a heart attack, Hazeem is quick to use his power to save her--until Time itself appears and tells Hazeem he has accrued a time debt, having given away more life than he has left to live and putting the entire timeline in serious danger of collapse. In order to save the timeline and himself, Hazeem must take back some of the life he has granted other people. Suddenly, Hazeem is on a journey through and against time, but as he confronts the events of the past, he must confront the mistakes he made along the way. Hazeem will come to realize that when it comes to time, quality is more important to quantity--but is it too late to reclaim the life he's given away so he can really start living? No

Jubilee Time Maria Harris, 2009-12-30 In keeping with the bestselling When I Am an Old Woman I Shall Wear Purple, and Gail Sheehy's New Passages, Jubilee Time celebrates the freedom, opportunities, and power of older women, who are too often maligned in our youth-obsessed culture. Based on the Jubilee passage in Leviticus--You shall hallow the fiftieth year. It shall be a Jubilee for you--this practical and philosophical book helps women assess what values and beliefs they want to carry forward into the second half of life. A Jubilarian herself, Harris draws on her own experience and cites others--including May Sarton, Anne Morrow Lindbergh, M.F.K. Fisher, Florida Scott-Maxwell, Doris Grumbach, as well as more than one hundred ordinary women--to reflect the variety and vitality of this unheralded community. In lyrical prose punctuated by exercises and meditations, she invites readers to rest and reflect, stop and take stock, celebrate and cultivate the rich rewards of a mature spirituality.
