Albee and Influence ,2021-03-01 Albee and Influence is the fourth volume in the series New Directions in Edward Albee Studies sponsored by the Edward Albee Society. The volume contains essays, written by leading Albee scholars, that focus on literary and philosophical influences on Edward Albee's plays as well as essays on writers and works that Albee influenced. Essays focus on Albee's relationship with such major American playwrights as Thornton Wilder, Amiri Baraka, Sam Shepard, Lanford Wilson and John Guare. There are also contributions on Albee's work as mentor to young playwrights. The volume also includes an interview with award-winning director Pam McKinnon.

Latin America and the Origins of Its Twenty-First Century Michael Monteón,2009-12-30 Latin American societies were created as pre-industrial colonies, that is, peoples whose cultures and racial makeup were largely determined by having been conquered by Spain or Portugal. In all these societies, a colonial heritage created political and social attitudes that were not conducive to the construction of democratic civil societies. And yet, Latin America has a public life--not merely governments, but citizens who are actively involved in trying to improve the lives and welfare of their populations. Monteón focuses on the relation of people's lifestyles to the evolving pattern of power relations in the region. Much more than a basic description of how people lived, this book melds social history, politics, and economics into one, creating a full picture of Latin American life. There are two poles or markers in the narrative about people's lives: the cities and the countryside. Cities have usually been the political and cultural centers of life, from the conquest to the present. Monteón concentrates on cities in each chronological period, allowing the narrative to explain the change from a religiously-centered life to the secular customs of today, from an urban form organized about a central plaza and based on walking, to one dominated by the automobile and its traffic. Each chapter relates the connections between the city and its countryside, and explains the realities of rural life. Also discussed are customs, diets, games and sports, courting and marriage, and how people work.

Truth Commissions and State Building Bonny Ibhawoh,Jasper Abembia Ayelazuno,Sylvia Bawa,2023-11-14 More than just an opportunity to uncover fact after conflict, truth commissions can also offer restorative power to nations across the globe. Truth Commissions and State Building presents the first comparative study of the role of its kind, illuminating these possibilities. Examining truth commissions as mechanisms for civic inclusion, identity formation, institutional reform, and nation (re)building in post-conflict and post-authoritarian societies, the book shifts attention towards institutional innovation orientador. Ela se dá pelo texto absolutamente sincero, pela ousadia de se posicionar inesperadamente no meio acadêmico e pelas quatro grandes características que lhe garantem uma singularidade prazerosa: 1. Serve-se, o tempo todo, de referências a outros autores, garantindo uma grande riqueza de campos de conhecimento diversos. 2. Resgata de sua memória um brilhante acervo literário para reforçar sua crença na importância da boa escrita. 3. Afasta-se, explicitamente, do modelo de manuais ou de diretrizes que se propõem a guiar o candidato passo a passo. 4. Insiste, veementemente, que devemos buscar prazer no trabalho de pesquisador, no do candidato a doutor e na relação entre eles.
