Wisdom of the Bees Erik Berrevoets, 2009-09 Although the fruits of Anthroposophy--Waldorf education, biodynamic agriculture, Camphill, anthroposophic medicine, and so on--are relatively well known and moderately successful, their relationship to Anthroposophy and its vehicle for transmission, the General Anthroposophical Society, and the School for Spiritual Science, remains mysterious and unclear; sadly, the same is true of the meaning and purpose of those institutions. Related to this is the fact that, though these offshoots of Anthroposophy are well known, eighty-five years after his death and eighty-seven years after the re-formation of the Anthroposophical Society, what Rudolf Steiner brought into the world, what entered the world through him and what he sought to accomplish--that is, what spiritual science and spiritual-scientific research are and how one practices them--remain virtually unknown. In other words, something essential has been forgotten. Written both in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of Rudolf Steiner's birth and in the context of the long-standing, episodically erupting, and ongoing confusion surrounding the mission and task of the Anthroposophical Society, Peter Selg seeks to recover what has perhaps been forgotten or overlooked in Rudolf Steiner's own words and life. He does so by describing, clearly and objectively, the historical background of Steiner's vision of the civilizational task of Anthroposophy and how he had hoped it might be accomplished. This book has two parts. First, the author offers a lucid description of the development and gradual sharpening--in the face of the crisis of Western culture epitomized by World War I and its aftermath--of the vision of spiritual science as a truly Michaelic task for the Michael Age. In part two, Peter Selg takes up the events following Rudolf Steiner's death, outlining deftly and subtly the struggles and developments that ensued, commenting tactfully on the questions and perspectives that arose and continue to arise. Rudolf Steiner's Intentions for the Anthroposophical Society is for all those who care about the reality and future of Anthroposophy. Originally published in German as Der Vorstand, die Sektionen und die Gesellschaft. Welche Hochschule wollte Rudolf Steiner? by Ita Wegman Institute for Basic Research into Anthroposophy.

Timeless Principles For The Workplace Ashish Raichur, 2021-07-01 The world around us is constantly changing. Global markets gain and tumble, economies rise and fall. Organizations need to constantly improvise and adapt to changing conditions. Concepts, theories, and ideas about management, organizational development, entrepreneurship, leadership, employee motivation, and numerous areas surrounding the workplace keep on evolving. This is indeed necessary as the marketplace is constantly changing. Amidst this continuous change, there are some constants. There are principles that transcend time, place, people, and culture. We refer to these as “Timeless Principles.” They hold true regardless of the variants of when, where, what, and why. This is not a management book, but a book of “Timeless Principles.” At the workplace, we encounter numerous challenges—corrupt sales processes, accounting malpractices, unscrupulous bosses, questionable advertising methods, employment terminations, the challenge of time for family, struggles with work-life balance, and many other situations. This book provides these “Timeless Principles.” Entire organizations and businesses can be transformed as its people assimilate and apply these “Timeless Principles.” Watch our online Sunday Church service live stream every Sunday at 10:30am (Indian Time, GMT+5:30). Work: Its Original Design Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 The Fall had its impact on the workplace. The workplace was cursed. There would be sweat, labor, and toil to enjoy fruit. And this would go on throughout a person's life. As believers, we are redeemed people who are in covenant with God, although we live in a fallen world. So, it is true that we will face the evil that is in the world. However, we are here to live as the redeemed of the Lord – as New Covenant people in whose lives the power of the Cross is at work. So, each day as we go into our workplace, we must believe in the redeeming power of the Cross to affect our work, our workplace, and our work life. Because of the Cross, we can recover God's original design for the workplace. Watch our online Sunday Church service live stream every Sunday at 10:30am (Indian Time, GMT+5:30). Water Baptism Ashish Raichur, 2020-07-01 Water baptism is an important experience in our journey as believers in Jesus Christ. All of us who have made the decision to believe and follow Jesus Christ will take this important step at some point. Water baptism is a command given by the Lord Jesus Christ to all who choose to follow Him. Hence this command must be obeyed. This is a simple study from God's Word to help you understand the meaning and significance of water baptism as you prepare to be baptized in water. We cover six important truths concerning water baptism: 1. A sign of repentance, 2. Fulfilling all righteousness, 3. A testimony that you are His disciple, 4. A testimony of your faith in Jesus Christ, 5. A proclamation of your identification with Jesus, 6. The response of a good conscience. We also answer some common questions that people ask about water baptism. Watch our online Sunday Church service live stream every Sunday at 10:30am (Indian Time, GMT+5:30). The Redemptive Heart Of God Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 God's heart is redemptive in nature. God never quits on what He starts. He loves and saves to the uttermost, no matter what the cost. God always seeks to redeem and bring things back to Himself. We are called to be like Him, and hence our approach to life situations and to the problems we face must be redemptive as well. In this study, our goal is to understand and capture the redemptive heart of God, so that we will learn to view life's situations with His redemptive eyes and learn to be coworkers with God in His redemptive process for things in our own lives as well as those around us. God's redemptive process involves key elements of Time, Sacrifice, Forgiveness, and Restoration. We are here to be co-workers with God in this redemptive process. We must work with God, recognizing and following each element of His redemptive process, as He works to redeem things in our lives, as well as when we co-labor with Him to see His redemptive work take place in other people's lives. What is it that you want God to redeem in your life? God is your Redeemer. Nothing is beyond His ability to redeem. You can look to Him in faith, no matter what your circumstances are and experience His redemptive work. This book will help you do this. Watch our online Sunday Church

The Presence Of God Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 This book is essentially a study from God's Word concerning the glorious presence of God. The objective is to present what the Scriptures reveal about the presence of God, so that believers will be inspired and motivated to seek God and hunger for more of His presence. Soak in God's Word and invite His presence into your life. Expect to experience His presence as you pursue Him. Hunger and thirst for more of His presence. To be in His presence, simply means to be in a place where you are seeking His face—you are face to face with God. Get together with other believers and seek the Lord and His presence corporately. Nothing on earth can be compared to being with Him and experiencing His presence! Watch our online Sunday Church service live stream every Sunday at 10:30am (Indian Time, GMT+5:30). Giving Birth To The Purposes Of God Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 When God wants to release His purposes on the earth, there may be times when He used angelic beings, but most often, He releases them through human vessels. This means that His purposes are released on the earth, through people, like you and me. As you walk with God, you will discover the plans and purposes that He desires to release on this earth through you. Some of these may be extremely significant—like the birth of the Son of God through a virgin, and some others may not be as significant—like setting up a nursery school in a remote village that no one has heard about. Yet, each is a work of God being released on the earth. This book contains some valuable insight on giving birth to the purposes of God on the earth. So, go about releasing the works of God through your life! Understanding The Prophetic Ashish Raichur, 2010-03-01 God is restoring the prophetic ministry in the Church today. From believers learning how to flow in the gift of prophecy, to men and women being raised up as ministry gift prophets, there is a reviving of prophetic ministry in the Body of Christ all over the world. The prophetic is not only about hearing and speaking, it is about hearing and doing what God wants done here on earth. God is raising up prophetic believers who not only serve within the local church, but also prophetic believers who are affecting the marketplace through practical ideas and strategies they have received from God. God is raising up prophets like Joseph and Daniel who will represent Him and be His prophetic voice in the high places of the earth today. This training manual is designed to equip believers, stir up the prophetic in them and enable them to develop a strong prophetic ministry in whatever vocation they may be. Change Ashish Raichur, 2021-07-01 Our Christian life began with repentance, which essentially is a change of heart and mind, from sin and Satan, towards the living God. At that very moment, God changed us on the inside. We became born-again! We became new creatures in Christ. In an instant, God did a creative work in our spirits that brought us out of darkness into the light, from being in bondage to Satan to being free in Christ. Our life in Christ began with an event of instant change and it culminates with another instantaneous event of change. However, between these two points is a continuous process of change. This book dwells on that subject and is primarily motivational and intended to stir us up to be actively involved in this continuous process of change. Ministering Healing And Deliverance Ashish Raichur, 2014-07-27 The Lord Jesus intended for every person who believed in Him to do the works He did and even greater works (John 14:12). While God does have specific gifts, calling, and anointing placed on specific individuals with a ministry function in the Body of Christ, the power and authority to minister healing and deliverance is given to every believer. The Lord desires to see every child of His, young and old, moving in the power of His Spirit, in the authority of Jesus' name, doing the works of the Father, so that people will know and experience the living Jesus in their lives! Divine Order Ashish Raichur, 2021-03-01 This book exposes the lack of divine order among ministries, churches and believers in citywide churches. You will be challenged to rethink the way you conduct yourself as a minister of God or as a believer of Jesus Christ. This book is candid, open and straight from the heart! If you have the courage to face the truth and are willing to change—then read on! If God's people learn to walk in divine order, we will have less strife, division, and competition among churches, ministers, ministries, and believers. Hence, this book is produced with much concern and a sincere desire to see divine order established among ministers, churches, and believers in our cities, communities, and local geographical regions. In this book, we discuss issues from the perspective of the citywide Church. But the same things hold good for a community, town, or any region, where churches, ministers, ministries, and believers coexist and are co-laboring. The guidelines presented in this book come from one single basis—to have all things done decently and in order. Our desire is to see the citywide Church and the church in any community, be the kind of Church that Jesus wants it to be, so that Jesus will be glorified in all things! God Is A Good God Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 Our picture of God is “developed” through a variety of sources—what others have said about God, what we conclude because of experiences, observations, reading, analyses, and so on. But not all of these may be correct! Based on our past experiences, we tend to retain many of our biases, misconceptions and wrong notions of who God is, what He does and how He works. Sometimes even what we may have heard in religious places, read in religious books could have misrepresented God to us and may have resulted in us having a wrong and inaccurate picture of God. Very often we even think that God could be mean and cruel. This book paints a fresh picture of God, showing us from the Bible that God is a good God. Shhh! No Gossip! Ashish Raichur, 2021-06-01 Gossip, backbiting, slander and back-stabbing are things people commonly engage in without realizing the negative impact it has on individuals, communities, work environments and other social structures. People are hurt, communities disintegrate, work environments become hostile and unproductive, often due to a small thing called gossip. Gossip is like a weed that grows and if not removed quickly, it can destroy a beautiful garden. This simple book alerts us to scriptural teaching on gossip, helps us get rid of this lifestyle and also presents easy practical steps to handle gossip. We hope this resource will in some way help organizations develop healthy workplace environments; educational institutions to foster friendly and supportive student relationships; and people in communities to engage with a sense of love and concern for each other. Let gossip cease! Watch our online Sunday Church service live stream every Sunday at 10:30am (Indian Time, GMT+5:30). Spirit filled, anointed worship, Word and ministry for healing, miracles and deliverance.
